

Scarecrow Decorating Contest

The City of Bolivar Community Garden is hosting the second annual BEST SCARECROW CONTEST! We are raising money for the community garden for seeds, soil, new raised beds, and replacement garden tools.

When? Entries due by October 20th. Scarecrows will need to be placed from Monday October 23th-26th.

Where? Pleasant Run Creek Park (City of Bolivar Community Garden is in the open field to the right once in the parking lot.)

Why? To help the community garden and a fun way to celebrate FALL!

How much? $10 entry fee per business, non-profit or person.

You will get a number once your submission is received that will correspond to a numbered flag where you will place your scarecrows. Standard T-posts will be available for you to affix your scarecrow.

Scarecrows will be judged for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place. The scarecrows will be left in place through Thursday, November 9th. You may retrieve your scarecrow anytime November 9-14th.

Contact Brittney Willis, Garden Coordinator, with any questions at 731-609-5765.

HAPPY FALL Y'ALL!
